The National WWII Museum's

Student Video Contest

YOUR MISSION:

To celebrate The National WWII Museum's "Experience The Victory" Grand Opening in November 2009, we call on students across the country to submit short videos of themselves answering the question:

"What can the WWII generation teach my generation?"

Submission Rules:

- Videos must not be longer than two minutes.
- Videos can be simple head shots or include props and edited elements.
- Students may only submit videos individually, not as a group.
- Only one submission per student is allowed.
- Students must be at least 12 years old to participate.
- Deadline for submissions is November 4, 2009, at 5:00pm CST
- For more information, email ww2projects@nationalww2museum.org

Submission Instructions:

- Upload your video to TeacherTube: www.teachertube.com
- Fill out and send a submission form: www.nationalww2museum.org/education/for-students/student-video-contest.html. This form must be filled out fully and accurately for your video to be accepted.
- Check out selected student videos at http://ww2museumstudentvideos.tumblr.com/
- If the Museum posts your video, we will let you know by email.

Selected student videos will be featured on The National WWII Museum's website in the weeks leading up to the November 6 Grand Opening weekend.

PRIZES: By submitting an appropriate video, you will be entered into a drawing for one of five special edition National WWII Museum Flip Mino video recorders. Winners will be notified by email on November 9.

All video submissions become property of The National WWII Museum and may be reproduced, in whole or part, by the Museum in printed or electronic form. Proper attribution will be made.
