

The National WWII Museum wants to see...

E Pluribus Unum - In Your Very Own School!

2009 Student Art Contest

"Out of Many, One." Based on themes from the special exhibit Fighting for Democracy: Who is the "We" in "We the People"? from the National Center for the Preservation of Democracy, on view at The National WWII Museum from February 7 through May 17, 2009.

- Contest is open to all students in grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 in the United States, U.S. Territories, and military bases.
- Art work must be mailed to the Museum and must be postmarked by March 27, 2009.
- Museum will accept the first 500 valid entries only. The website will indicate when 500 essays have been submitted.

AWARDS

The Museum will select one winner from each grade. Winners will receive a $100 prize and a WWII Museum baseball cap. Three honorable mentions from each grade will receive a certificate and WWII Museum baseball cap. Winners will be notified May 1, 2009. Winning entries and honorable mentions will be displayed in an on-line exhibit on the Museum's website.

Go to www.nationalww2museum.org/education/studentart.html for thematic guidelines and submission instructions.

THE NATIONAL WWII MUSEUM

945 Magazine Street, New Orleans, LA 70130