Dear Friend of the Museum,

In 1980, my predecessor Nick Mueller persuaded his best friend and University of New Orleans colleague Stephen Ambrose to lead their first overseas tour – a trip from the Normandy D-Day beaches to the Rhine River. For the next 20 years, the duo continued to run tours while Ambrose began collecting hundreds of oral histories from D-Day veterans, including interviews with surviving members of the famed Easy Company.

Of course, the rest is history. Ambrose’s research and interviews led to best-selling books and the HBO miniseries Band of Brothers. Ambrose and Mueller’s passion for preserving the stories of D-Day veterans led to the idea of building a National D-Day Museum in New Orleans. And their overseas tours tracing the wartime route of the “Band of Brothers” helped raise funds for the Museum, which would open in 2000 and quickly expand its mission to include the entire war effort.

Today, the Easy Company tour remains one of our most popular travel programs and features many of those Easy Company interviews conducted by Ambrose and his team at the Eisenhower Center for American Studies. While our travel program has expanded significantly, this journey remains core to our mission – offering rare access to sites, extraordinary guides, the world’s top WWII historians, and the finest accommodations. As the authority on World War II, the Museum draws upon its collection of oral histories, photographs, and artifacts to deliver the most memorable, emotional, educational, and extraordinary travel experiences.

I hope you’ll join us on this personal journey to the beaches, bridges, cities, and villages where the legendary Easy Company fought the crucial D-Day battles and changed the course of history.

Stephen J. Watson
President & CEO,
The National WWII Museum

FROM OUR COLLECTION

Personal and professional friendships brought together the stories of the members of Easy Company at The National WWII Museum—in our oral history collection and our exhibits. Easy Company: England to the Eagle’s Nest, is the only tour featuring many archival and research pieces pertaining to the “Band of Brothers”. Other documents and materials will be reproduced and shared with tour participants.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE
EISENHOWER’S COMMAND FOR D-DAY

As the Supreme Commander of the Allies, it was up to “Ike,” Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, to make the final decision as to whether to launch the invasion of Normandy on June 5, 1944. Due to less-than-favorable weather reports, there was serious concern amongst many within the Allied high command that casualties would be extremely high. This was especially the case for the Allied airborne forces. Air Marshal Sir Trafford Leigh-Mallory, who was in charge of the planes that would deliver the paratroopers to their drop zones, feared that the casualty rate for these elite troops could be as high as 75%.

Ike made the decision to postpone the landings by one day, pushing D-Day back to June 6, 1944. As he gathered his team the next night for a final war council, he polled his commanders again, and again Leigh-Mallory stressed his concern of the weather conditions and the well-being of the airborne forces. Despite these warnings, Eisenhower knew that the invasion couldn’t be postponed indefinitely, so he made the tough decision with the words, “OK, let’s go.”
Day 1: London Arrivals / Aldbourne, England
After individual arrivals into London-Heathrow (LHR) proceed west of London to the training areas of Easy Company. Stop for lunch en route to Aldbourne. After lunch, we'll enjoy a walking tour of Aldbourne accompanied by some of the same villagers who would have welcomed Easy Company 75 years ago. This evening, enjoy meeting your fellow travelers at a Welcome Reception and Dinner at the hotel.
Accommodations: Donnington Valley Hotel & Spa (L, R, D)

Day 2: Portsmouth / Normandy
This morning, head south to visit the newly refurbished D-Day Museum in Portsmouth where the story of D-Day and the Battle of Normandy is told using artifacts, interactive material, and the perspectives of people who experienced it first-hand. The museum reopened in spring 2018 after a $7 million expansion and refurbishment, with a strong emphasis on public programs and education. After an included lunch, cross the English Channel by ferry this afternoon, enjoying dinner on board and landing in Normandy late this evening. Settle into Normandy, the group's home for the next four nights.
Accommodations: Le Manoir De Mathan (B, L, D)

Day 3: Normandy, France
On the group's first day in Normandy, touring is devoted to the ground troops who came ashore in the Omaha Beach area. Head out for a morning visit to Pointe du Hoc, where the Army Rangers faced tough odds coming ashore before scaling the imposing 100-foot cliff. After visiting Omaha Beach, enjoy an included group lunch. The afternoon is devoted to the Normandy American Cemetery, where more than 9,385 Americans are laid to rest in the ground they helped liberate. Guests will be given time to reflect and remember the sacrifice that happened here. Reflect on the day's touring during dinner with the group this evening.
Accommodations: Le Manoir De Mathan (B, L, D)

EASY COMPANY:
ENGLAND TO THE EAGLE’S NEST
MAY 1 – 13, 2019 • JUNE 10 – 22, 2019 • JUNE 24 – JULY 6, 2019
13 days for only $6,795* per person double occupancy
single occupancy $8,995*
$329 per person taxes and fees are additional.
Richard "Dick" Winters began his association with the 101st Airborne Division's 506th Parachute Infantry Regiment as a platoon leader in Easy Company. By war's end, he commanded the 506th's Second Battalion, which included his old company. Although the attrition of war played a part in Winters' rapid advance through the ranks, it was his superb leadership and ability to complete tough assignments that endeared him to the men under his command. The men of Easy Company who survived the war attribute their survival to many things, and the leadership of Dick Winters is always near the top of the list.

Easy Company: England to the Eagle's Nest visits sites that Winters and his men made legendary, including Brécourt Manor where they knocked out a battery of German 105's on D-Day; the "Crossroads" in the Netherlands where they took on a force many times their size; Foy, on the outskirts of Bastogne, where they endured hell from both the Germans and Mother Nature; the site of the "Last Patrol" in Haguenau; and finally, the Eagle's Nest, where the men of Easy Company enjoyed Hitler's famous mountain retreat.
Day 4: Normandy, France

After breakfast, depart for the Utah Beach area to tour the landing beach and visit the Utah Beach Museum, which offers the oral history of Dick Winters on the 2nd floor. Next, take an exclusive tour of Brécourt Manor, made famous by Easy Company’s action here on June 6, 1944. Enjoy lunch on your own in the small town of Sainte-Mère-Église, where this afternoon your guide will recount what it was like for the villagers here to see paratroopers dropping from the night sky. The group stops at the Airborne Memorial and the Airborne Museum before heading to Marmion Farm. This evening, transportation to Bayeux is provided for you to enjoy an evening and dinner at leisure.

Accommodations: Le Manoir De Mathan (B)

Day 5: Normandy, France

Today, travel along rural lanes, past hedgerows, and over causeways to La Fière, where elements of the 82nd Airborne fought off four days of attacks from German troops trying to retake this strategic bridge. Next, visit the historic Château de Bernaville, where a little-known event involving US paratroopers factored heavily into the Allies’ D-Day success. The château was the headquarters of German General Wilhelm Falley who was visited by Rommel just prior to D-Day, and killed here by American paratroopers at 4:00 a.m. on D-Day. Next, travel to Beuzeville-au-Plain to view the monument to Lt. Thomas Meehan’s downed C-47, and hear his story.

After an included lunch during your visit to the Normandy Victory Museum, learn the story of Easy Company at the important town of Carentan, which linked the Utah and Omaha Beach forces. End the day’s touring at the Dead Man’s Corner Museum and with a visit to the church at Angoville au Plain. A “Farewell to Normandy” dinner is included this evening.

Accommodations: Le Manoir De Mathan (B, L, D)
Day 6: Normandy to the Netherlands

Bid farewell to Normandy and head to The Netherlands. Along the way, view episodes from the Band of Brothers miniseries and excerpts from other WWII-themed movies. Stop for lunch and independent exploration in the quaint town of Amiens, France. Relax on the coach this afternoon. An included dinner at the hotel greets you upon arrival in Eindhoven, enjoy a group dinner at the hotel.

Accommodations: Hotel Pullman Eindhoven Cocagne (B, D)

Day 7: Eindhoven / Arnhem / Nijmegen

Today’s tour covers the American areas of Operation Market-Garden — the failed, yet heroic Allied attempt to cross the Rhine River in September 1944. Visit Easy Company’s drop zone and follow its path of liberation to see where Dick Winters led the attack at “The Crossroads,” the subject of Episode 5 of Band of Brothers, and where members of the company helped rescue more than 100 British airborne troops who were stuck behind enemy lines across the Rhine in Operation Pegasus. The touring day ends in Arnhem and the “Bridge Too Far” before the drive back to Eindhoven where guests enjoy an evening at leisure.

Accommodations: Hotel Pullman Eindhoven Cocagne (B, L)
Day 8: The Ardennes

This morning, guests may choose to take a guided tour of Eindhoven, explore the area independently, or relax at the hotel. The optional morning tour includes details on the actions that happened around Eindhoven, with visits to the Joe Mann Memorial and the Robert Cole Memorial.

During an afternoon tour of the Netherlands American Cemetery, learn how local citizens “adopted” the graves of individual soldiers after the war, and how many local families still maintain the same graves to this day. After paying our respects to members of Easy Company who are buried there, continue to the medieval market town of Clervaux, Luxembourg, in the heart of the Ardennes. Along the way, the tour guide presents an overview of the Battle of the Bulge—Hitler’s last-ditch effort to defeat the Allies in the west, and the largest land battle fought by the U.S. Army in World War II.

Accommodations: Hotel International (B, D)

Day 9: Bastogne

This day is dedicated to the heroic defense of the besieged crossroads town of Bastogne. This morning, visit the Mardasson Memorial, a monument honoring the memory of American soldiers wounded or killed during the Battle of the Bulge.

Guests may choose to climb in Easy Company’s foxholes in the Bois Jacques before taking lunch on own. The tour continues with a visit to the Bastogne Barracks, where Gen. Tony McAuliffe of the 101st gave his famous reply of “NUTS!” to the Germans’ request that the Americans surrender. The day ends with a tour of the Bastogne War Museum, followed by an evening at leisure.

Accommodations: Hotel International (B)
Day 10: Luxembourg City / Haguenau
Before departing the Ardennes, the final stop is at the Luxembourg American Cemetery and Memorial, where guests visit the graves of Easy Company members and Gen. George S. Patton. Guests continue to Haguenau for lunch and then walk the “Last Patrol” of Easy Company, where they held fast against Operation Nordwind for more than a month. Visit the MM (Musee Militaire) Park Museum, a new museum with an impressive collection of tanks and other large artifacts of the era. Arrive in Ettlingen this evening and enjoy dinner and exploration on your own.
Accommodations: Hotel Erbprinz (B, L)

Day 11: Dachau / Zell Am See
Located ten miles northwest of Munich, the Dachau Concentration Camp was established in 1933 to hold political prisoners. Throughout the rest of the 1930s, the camp grew to hold Jews, Roma, Slavs, and more groups deemed unworthy by the Nazis. In 1943, as total war was waged across the continent, the Nazis constructed more than 150 subsidiary camps near Dachau where prisoners were often worked to death. The terrible conditions in Dachau and throughout the subsidiary camps led to a widespread typhus epidemic by the end of 1944 as the Allied armies were preparing to enter Germany. When the first American troops approached the camp in April, 1945 the sight of the prisoners and the living conditions tested even the most battle-hardened soldiers. Easy Company happened upon one of Dachau’s subsidiary camps near Landsberg, focus of Episode 9 of the miniseries. After reflecting on why World War II was fought, the group heads to the Bavarian Alps, as Easy Company did, for the final chapter of the journey.
Accommodations: Grand Hotel Zell am See (B, L, D)

Day 12: Berchtesgaden
On the final day of touring, guests take in the spectacular views from Hitler’s Eagle’s Nest, captured by Allied forces in May 1945. Returning to Zell Am See, guests view sites where Easy Company was stationed after V-E Day, and end the day with a farewell dinner.
Accommodations: Grand Hotel Zell Am See (B, L, D)

Day 13: Zell Am See / Munich
After breakfast, bid farewell to Austria and transfer to the Munich Airport for individual return flights to the United States. One (1) group transfer from Zell Am See to Munich will be offered. Departure flights out of Munich Airport (MUC) should be scheduled no earlier than 12:00 pm (you will arrive 3 hours prior to departure, drive time between Zell Am See and Munich can be up to 3 hours).

Please note that weather and/or local government and venue conditions may change the final schedule. Each evening you will receive a detailed schedule for the following day, including the timing of meals and tours. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to speak with any member of the tour and Museum staff.
Prior to the commencement of the main tour, guests enjoy two nights at the luxurious Rubens at the Palace Hotel, an historic 5-star property that dates back to the 1700s and has served royalty throughout the centuries. One and a half days of touring include St. Paul’s Cathedral, which managed to escape complete ruin during the Blitz of 1940; the storied Churchill War Rooms, hidden beneath the streets of Westminster; and the Imperial War Museum, home of artifacts of British conflicts from the First World War to the present. Breakfast at the hotel is included each morning, and lunch during the full day of touring is included at a traditional British pub.

TOUR FARE

Your tour fare covers arrangements and services including hotel accommodations, meals as per the itinerary, gratuities, ground transportation, guiding services, and special tour inclusions as described within the travel program brochures and on the Museum’s web-site at: www.ww2museumtours.org. All fares are quoted in US Dollars, are per guest and are based on double occupancy. As indicated below, airfare to and from the tour destination is not included in your tour fare. The Museum accepts no liability for the purchase of non-refundable airline tickets.

Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, up to the time of full payment the Museum reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to the Museum upon notice to the tour participant of such increases.

NOT INCLUDED

Taxes, unless otherwise noted in the travel program brochure; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel, unless otherwise noted in the travel program brochure; optional sightseeing excursions; airfare, baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport taxes; and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed as included in the travel program; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight expenses on land due to flight schedule(s) or delays; meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned as included in the travel program.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

To reserve your participation, submit an initial deposit of $1,000 per person within five (5) days of booking. A $200 per person deposit is due for any pre and/or post program options that you select. Final payment is due no later than ninety (90) days prior to departure. All reservations are subject to cancellation if payments are not received by the due date. Payment by check is preferred in order to reduce costs to the Museum. VISA, MasterCard and American Express are also accepted.

CANCELLATIONS

Should it be necessary to cancel your reservation, please contact the Museum immediately at 1-877-813-3329 ext. 257. Cancellations for all or any part of a tour including optional pre and/or post tour extension programs will not be effective until received in writing. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply:

*In addition, applicable cancellation fees for confirmed additional hotel nights and/or transfers may apply. Tour cost is defined as the cost of any cruise, land, or air element purchased from The National WWII Museum.
TRAVEL INSURANCE
Because our cancellation policy is strictly enforced, we strongly recommend that you protect your investment through a travel protection insurance policy. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip insurance may be your only source of reimbursement. Travel cancellation protection policies are available through the Museum's Travel Department and information is included in your initial confirmation packet accordingly.

HEALTH, MEDICAL AND TOUR REQUIREMENTS
All guests are required to advise in writing to the Museum at the time their reservation is made if they have:
- Any physical or mental condition that may require medical or professional treatment or attention during the tour;
- Any condition that may pose a risk to one's self and/or other participants on tour;
- Any condition that may require health aids, i.e.: oxygen, walkers, crutches, etc., or any intention or need to use a wheelchair while on the tour.

By booking passage the guest represents and warrants that he/she is physically and otherwise fit to travel and that guests will comply at all times with applicable rules and regulations of the Museum. The Museum reserves the right without liability to require a passenger to leave the tour or to refuse to accept a guest as a tour participant who, in the sole judgment of the Museum, is unfit to travel, is a danger to himself or herself or to others, does not follow instructions of the tour leader, may distract from the enjoyment of the trip by others or may require care beyond that which the Museum is reasonably able to provide.

We highly recommend that participants purchase a travel insurance package that provides medical coverage since most US policies do not provide coverage outside the United States.

LUGGAGE
Luggage will be limited to one (1) suitcase and one (1) carry-on per person to ensure that there is enough room on the motor coach for all passenger luggage. All luggage must be securely packed and clearly labeled. We recommend that all participants secure baggage loss and damage insurance that may be purchased for this tour.

Please see airline weight and size restrictions for luggage on international flights. The Museum is not responsible for loss or damage to luggage or any personal item during air travel, while in a hotel during land programs, on a cruise or while on shore excursions. Under no circumstances may dangerous items (i.e. explosives, firearms, liquid oxygen, combustible or illegal substances) be taken on the tour. We recommend that you hand carry travel documents (passports and tour tickets), medications and valuables, and check with your airline regarding carry-on baggage restrictions. These items are the full responsibility of the guest at all times. The Museum shall not be responsible for the loss of or damage to such personal items.

LAND TOURS, LECTURES AND PERSONALITIES
All tours are operated by independent contractors. These independent contractors may impose additional terms and conditions and limitations of liability on tour participants. Other independent contractors retained by the Museum such as lecturers, guest personalities and entertainers are subject to change and/or cancellation without notice.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS
All travel documents (air and tour tickets, passport) are the responsibility of the guest. It is also your responsibility to comply with all customs requirements. Without the required documents, you may be denied boarding and the Museum will not be liable for such denial or bear any financial responsibilities as a result thereof.

Security measures imposed by governments may change from time to time and you will be required to comply with them. We will endeavor to provide you with notice of measures which may affect you; but complying with any such requirement is your responsibility.
