Hancock Whitney and The National WWII Museum presents
The Band of Brothers' 20th Anniversary Reunion
 Exclusive Actors' Presentation for Students and Teachers

Jenny Craig Institute for the Study of War and Democracy

Friday, August 12, 2022, 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.
 U.S. Freedom Pavilion: The Boeing Center

The National WWII Museum invites you and your students to a special event in commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the HBO mini-series Band of Brothers. In the 20 years since its release, the men of Easy Company have become world famous with their actions recounted and steps retraced from England to the Eagle's Nest. Perhaps no single work in the past two decades has had such an impact on the American memory of World War II.

ADMISSION IS FREE & INCLUDES ENTRANCE TO THE MUSEUM'S GALLERIES

- Actors share their experiences researching and interviewing WWII veterans, filming the series as well as their experiences visiting the European battlefields where Easy Company saw combat
- Student Q&A Session with the actors from Band of Brothers
- Free time for your class to experience the Museum's galleries and campus
