THE NATIONAL
WWII MUSEUM
NEW ORLEANS

ABOUT US

Consistently rated by TripAdvisor as the top attraction in New Orleans, and nestled in the heart of Downtown, The National World War II Museum is set on a six-acre campus, where five soaring pavilions house historical exhibits, on-site restoration work, a period dinner theater, and restaurants. Through exhibits, multimedia experiences, and thousands of personal accounts, the Museum takes visitors on an immersive tour of World War II in every theater of war.

What better place to create the perfect setting to celebrate your big day. Invite your family and friends to our newly completed outdoor venue, the Col. Battle Barksdale Parade Ground, that will provide a picturesque backdrop for you to say "I do!" Then dance the night away alongside the historic LCVP or "Higgins boat" in our Louisiana Memorial Pavilion.

Just across the street, the Higgins Hotel is an excellent option to set up a room block for your guests traveling from out of town or those wishing to avoid driving after a night of merriment.

HISTORIC.

The LOUISIANA MEMORIAL PAVILION offers the unique opportunity to dine and dance surrounded by the workhorses of World War II, including a C-47 Skytrain and the historic LCVP Higgins boat, originally constructed right here in New Orleans.

This soaring four-story space includes access to the original D-Day gallery, The Arsenal of Democracy: The Herman and George Brown Salute to the Home Front exhibit, and the Joe W. and D.D. Brown Special Exhibits Gallery, which showcases special exhibits from the Museum's own collections as well as traveling exhibits from leading institutions around the world.
